

Remembrance Sunday 2020

There is so much to be thankful for at this time of year. November 11th is the day we remember those who gave their lives for our freedom. We hope you'll enjoy doing some of these activities with your family. Post pics to Sarah at cafms@stmaryslinton.org.uk

Find out all about Remembrance Day here at Newsround

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/15492752>

Use the bottoms of plastic bottles to make these beautiful poppies

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oVcsBo-VT5A>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ILPiavqj7mQ>

or use egg boxes to make some poppies

Use the poppy template and pipe cleaners to make a vase of poppies

In your bag are colouring sheets, a word search, an acrostic poem and a missing word puzzle

Thumb painting with red and black paint, can you make a beautiful picture?

Can you weave a poppy using a paper plate?

Can you make a poppy wreath with coloured paper cake cases and buttons? Try turning the cake cases inside out for a better colour.

Anzac Biscuits are delicious, they are made to remember the soldiers in Australia and New Zealand – the recipe card is in your bag. Enjoy

"Poppies" on CBeebies - Children's Remembrance Day 2 Minutes' Silence Alternative

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wOT5CDnYHEs>

The poppy story

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K8Jv0T9eFUy>

Listen to The Last Post

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EDS3TgtGaQQ>

Remembering – who do you remember and why? Write a letter, a poem or draw a picture to remember someone you love.

Note to parents: because of the sensitive nature of Remembrance Day you may want to watch these clips first to see if they are suitable for your child/children.