Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to you all as we worship together, especially to you if you are visiting or this is your first time with us.

At our Sunday Communion services, all are welcome to receive the bread and wine, either at the High Altar or within the Nave. If you would rather have a blessing, please keep your hands below the rail or lowered and we will pray with you. It is also fine to stay in your seat and just enjoy a time of quiet. Children are welcome to receive the bread too if they put their hands out.

Please join us for refreshments, in the pavilion after the Friday and 10 a.m. Sunday service.

Everyone is welcome, there is no charge, however a basket is available if you feel able to give a donation.

Notices for the week

Please send news items to Sue Filby* suefilby@btinternet.com by 5.00 p.m. on Wednesday, as the pewsheet is printed on Thursday morning.

If you would like to receive this pewsheet by email, saving valuable resources and costs, email Sue Filby*
 to have your details added to the distribution list.

Haverhill Foodbank after a recent emergency situation with one of their clients the foodbank is looking at their stocks of Starterpack items and how best we can support clients. They would like to build up their stock and ask for donations of single and double bedding, saucepans, towels & kitchen utensils, rather than food items. Ultimately they aim to have a small stock of microwaves, fridges, toasters & Z beds too, so if anyone has any of these items please contact Ann Merrigan 01440 712950 (Office) or 01440 268003 (REACH Centre).

Thank you for supporting the Mini Market last week. It raised £21.30 taking the total to over £825.00.

If you have any unwanted Christmas decorations (cones, baubles, wreaths, garlands etc.) please contact Sue Filby as she would like to upcycle them for future items at the Mini Market.

The stated purpose of the Mothers' Union is to be specially concerned with all that strengthens and preserves marriage and Christian family life. With that in mind, our meeting at 8 pm on 16th January, in the pavilion, is entitled 'Facilitating good relationships in marriage'. It is led by Jan and John Marshall who will talk from their perspective of running courses to benefit couples. As usual our meetings are open to anyone, not just ladies!

Don't forget to buy your tickets for the Murder Mystery Evening on Saturday 21st January at 7pm. A three course meal is on offer for the bargain price of £12. Deadline to book your place is Tuesday 17th January. Come with a friend or bring a whole team and see if you can solve the puzzle. See Sue Ellis or Pam Richardson.

Lunchtime Supervisor Vacancy at Linton CE Infant School.

The school is looking to recruit a flexible, efficient, capable and hardworking person to join their friendly team, supporting children during their lunchtime. The duties will include supervising the children at play, helping them to choose and eat their lunch and helping to keep the playground a happy, positive area for everyone. The hours will be daily, term time only, 11.45 a.m. – 1.00 p.m. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect staff to share this commitment. The post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Please contact Emma Penfold for further details and an application pack.
