Haverhill Foodbank this Lent: It can be arguably easy to give up certain things for Lent, but for some people food poverty is a real issue, with children having only their free school meal to eat all day long. This Lent, why not add an extra item to your trolley each week (or whatever you can) and bring it to church? Mel will collect all the items every Friday from the box by the font and take them over to Haverhill. They are currently in need of: Sugar, Instant Mash / Tinned potatoes. Thank you so much for your support.

Sarah has a few Messy Church posters spare. Do you know somewhere to display one? Theme for 17th March is St Patricks Day. Please invite and bring along anyone who enjoys being creative. Sarah would also be pleased to hear from anyone who could help with providing food for the tea.

Deanery Fair 30th March: If you have any bric a brac that could go on the Linton stall, Nanette would be very pleased to take it off your hands. Electrical goods are not permitted. Also, Nanette asks if any of you can make cakes, scones, bread, rolls or donate jams, chutneys, crockery, small gifts or a prize for the raffle she would be extremely grateful. Nanette can pick them up: nanette1@hotmail.co.uk or 01223 891111

Real Easter Eggs: Please place your orders by Sunday 10th March. Milk Chocolate Egg (£3.99), Dark Chocolate Egg which also contains 3 dark chocolate squares (£5.50) and a 'Special Edition' which contains a hand-made bookmark and an orange chocolate bar (£9.99). All cartons contain a simple version of the Easter Story. Please sign up on the list at the back of church and include your money with the order. Pam will be there to receive it. Many thanks.

The Jancis Harvey evening was enjoyed by many and raised £554.67 for Church funds.

Those who prefer to kneel to pray, kneelers are on the back pew, North aisle. Please take one.

To add to the pewsheets, or to receive it by email, please contact Mel. New email address is: admin@stmaryslinton.org.uk
