By kind agreement with the organisers, the money raised from this year's Lent lunches will be donated to the Joint Ely Diocese/Christian Aid Lent Appeal called 'Breaking the Barriers' (Morning Light), which empowers women to support themselves using sustainable energy. Please ask Pam for more details.

Next Sunday (March 24th) we will have a Parish Eucharist at 10am. The following Sunday (March 31st), the 10am service will be a 'Together with God' format, for our All Age celebration of Mothering Sunday. The choir and Music Group will both be involved.

Would you be able to help share the message of Easter on Good Friday? The plan is to have 'Messy Friday' from 10.30am - 12pm in the Infants School hall. Sarah needs a few extra helpers to make this happen. Please get in contact asap via usual routes.

Haverhill Foodbank this Lent: It can be arguably easy to give up certain things for Lent, but for some people food poverty is a real issue, with children having only their free school meal to eat all day long. This Lent, why not add an extra item to your trolley each week (or whatever you can) and bring it to church? Mel will collect all the items every Friday from the box by the font and take them over to Haverhill. They are currently in need of: Sugar, Instant Mash / Tinned potatoes. Thank you so much for your support.

Deanery Fair 30th March: If you have any bric a brac that could go on the Linton stall, Nanette would be very pleased to take it off your hands. Electrical goods are not permitted. Also, Nanette asks if any of you can make cakes, scones, bread, rolls, or donate jams, chutneys, crockery, small gifts or a prize for the raffle she would be extremely grateful. Nanette can pick them up: nanette1@hotmail.co.uk or 01223 891111

To add to the pewsheet, or to receive it by email, please contact Mel. New email address is: admin@stmaryslinton.org.uk
